

CERTIFICATE IN RESILIENCY with strands in Individual, Community, and Organisational Resilience

Level Medium

Credits 4

Purpose

This Certificate provides managers and owners of small businesses, staff and volunteers of community organisations, and the general public with recognition of the skills required to undertake community resiliency work. This includes an understanding of disasters and emergencies, the skills and knowledge required to put together a person preparedness plan, and an overview of resilience. Streams within the qualification allow for recognition and specialisation in individual, community, or organisational resilience.

Credit Range

	Compulsory	Strand One	Strand Two
Core study	1
Stream A (Development)		1
Stream B (Resiliency)			2
Minimum totals	1	1	2

Requirements for award of Certificate

- ←A minimum of 4 credits of which a minimum of 2 credits at Level 3
- ←Compulsory standards
- ←Stream One – A minimum of 1 credit as specified
- ←Stream Two – Balance

About this qualification

This qualification is not recognised by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority.

Certification

The certificate will display the logo of the New Zealand Resiliency Trust.

Detailed Requirements

Compulsory

Completion of the following course is required:

Id	Title	Difficulty	Credit
R001X	Introduction to Disasters and Emergencies	Low	1

Plus the learner may choose one stream from the following:

Strand A

Both courses must be completed.

Id	Title	Difficulty	Credit
R002A	Demonstrate knowledge of preparedness for personal emergencies and major disasters	Med	1
R003A	Demonstrate knowledge of personal resilience	Med	2

Strand B

Both courses must be completed.

Id	Title	Difficulty	Credit
R002B	Demonstrate knowledge of community preparedness for emergencies and major disasters	Med	1
R003B	Demonstrate knowledge of community resilience	Med	2

Strand C

Both courses must be completed.

Id	Title	Difficulty	Credit
R002C	Demonstrate knowledge of organisational preparedness for emergencies and major disasters	Med	1
R003C	Demonstrate knowledge of organisational resilience	Med	2

Prerequisite Diagram

